

Universities & Schools that give credit for the Marine Biology Program:

Rhineland High School, Rhineland, WI
Minocqua High School, WI
Northern Lakes Academy, Minocqua, WI
Pulaski High School – Sobieski, WI
Bay Port High School – Green Bay, WI
Eau Claire Memorial High School – Eau Claire, WI
Sheboygan Falls High School – Sheboygan Falls, WI
Elcho High School – Elcho, WI
Victory Christian High School – Oconomowoc, WI
Heritage Christian School, Milwaukee, WI
LaSalle High School – St. Ignace, MI
Avondale High School – Troy, MI
Jackson High School, MO
Kiski School – Pittsburgh, PA
Reed-Custer High School, Braidwood, IL
Bishop McNamara High School – Kankakee, IL
Clifton Central High School – Clifton, IL
Wilmington High School – Wilmington, IL
Boylan Catholic High School – Rockford, IL
Yorkville High School – Yorkville, IL
Lemont High School – Lemont, IL
Manteno High School – Manteno, IL
Peotone High School – Peotone, IL
Byron High School – Byron, IL
Minooka High School – Minooka, IL
Grace Baptist High School, Kankakee, IL
Lincoln-Way High School – New Lenox, IL
Kankakee High School –Kankakee, IL
Seneca High School – Seneca, IL
Morris High School – Morris, IL
Ridgewood High School – Harwood Heights, IL
Coal City High School – Coal City, IL
Rosary High School – Big Rock, IL
Prophetstown High School – Prophetstown, IL
*University of Southern Illinois – Carbondale
*University of Minnesota – Minneapolis, MN
*University of Wisconsin – Madison
*University of Wisconsin – Eau Claire
*University of Wisconsin – Steven's Point
*University of Wisconsin – Platteville

*Most universities allow inter-department independent study for credit but you must pay a fee for such credit.
Most high schools give one semester credit in advance biology.